Submission Guidelines

The Alexandrian accepts submissions of book reviews, articles, and essays on history, philosophy, and religion. All submissions must be in Microsoft Word and adhere to the Chicago Manual of Style. Please include footnotes instead of endnotes, and refrain from using headers. Article submissions must include an abstract of no more than 200 words. Abstracts are not necessary for book reviews or essays.

Authors of submissions accepted for publication will be asked to provide a short biography including your major and class designation, graduation date, research interests, plans after graduation, hometown, and any academic honors or affiliations for the contributors' page. Biographies should be no more than 100 words. Please be sure your name is written as you would like it to appear in the journal. Send all submissions to alexandrian@troy.edu.

Cover Art: The cover art for this year's edition was created by David Henry Souter (1862-1935), an Australian artist, sometime between 1914 and 1918. It depicts a World War I nurse standing before the iconic symbol of the International Committee of the Red Cross. Tens of thousands of women from Europe and North America served in field hospitals during the war. Many more volunteered to train Army and Navy nurses, work in military and civilian hospital, and staff aid centers at home and abroad.
