Submission Guidelines

The Alexandrian accepts manuscripts pertaining to the subjects of history and philosophy. Accepted forms include book reviews, historiographic essays, and full-length articles.

Format: All submissions should be in Microsoft Word. They should adhere to the Chicago Manual of Style. Please include footnotes instead of endnotes and refrain from using headers.

Abstract: Any article submission must include an abstract of no more than 200 words. This is not necessary for submissions of book reviews or essays.

Please send submissions to Dr. Karen Ross at kdross@troy.edu.

Cover: This year's cover features Red Channels, a booklet published in 1950 by Counterattack. Counterattack published this special report on alleged communist sympathizers among entertainers, journalists, and other media figures in their hunt for subversives during the Red Scare. For more on the Cold War and the media, see Alyssa Allen's article in this issue.
